Global in Theory, Practice and Opportunity

The Silberman College of Business at Fairleigh Dickinson University

How fitting that the Silberman College of Business at Fairleigh Dickinson University is a stone's throw from New York City, one of the world's most dynamic business and cultural centers. Just as Lady Liberty stands as a proud symbol of unity among people from all walks of life, Silberman College is a towering portal to a global business education, bringing together faculty and future business leaders of diverse backgrounds and pursuits.

It is here, at this world-renowned business school in a region rife with opportunity, that the current and next generation of globally conscious business professionals — managers, administrators, innovators and leaders — find the environment to understand, accept and prepare for the challenges that lie ahead.

"It's important for our students to not only have a very thorough knowledge of global business, but to experience it firsthand and understand the important role they can play as difference-makers. Our students will be ready for the real world today and will help shape the world of tomorrow."

— Dean William M. Moore, Ph.D.

Cultivating Citizens of the World

Accredited by AACSB International — the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business — Silberman College of Business is a school of the highest caliber, with internationally acclaimed entrepreneurial and sustainability institutes and educational alliances throughout the world. Silberman College seeks to develop global citizens who are mindful of their responsibilities as professionals in a business world without boundaries, as citizens of their communities and as stewards of the Earth.

Campuses Here and Abroad

Silberman offers degree programs at three campus locations — Teaneck, N.J.; Madison, N.J.; and Vancouver, B.C., Canada — as well as study opportunities at the FDU campus in Wroxtton, England. Students can travel between campuses, enjoying the advantage of distinct settings and engaging interactions with fellow business students.

An Outstanding and Diverse Faculty

Silberman College's world-class faculty represent a wide array of cultures, professional experiences and cutting-edge research. As teachers, mentors and coaches in equal measure, they create a distinct dynamic in the classroom through their interactions with students and demonstrate a continuing interest in students' professional success.

Experiential Learning Without Boundaries

Students are provided with extraordinary opportunities for internships and overseas study programs. In the New York metropolitan area, in Canada, across Europe and beyond, Silberman College students are experiencing the world of business firsthand and applying that knowledge in the classroom and in their careers.
