

Fairleigh Dickinson University's International Education Week 2009

College at Florham

We look forward to seeing you during International Education Week
2009!

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16

International Dress Day

All Day

Everyone at FDU is encouraged to wear clothing which reflects their culture or heritage to "kick off" International Education Week.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Post-student Years: Immigration Options

2:30–4:00 p.m. Room S-11, Science Building

Immigration attorney Kate Kalmykov of Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer, LLP provides information on H-1B, permanent residency and other post F-1/J-1 options.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18

Ambassador Lecture:

China and Its Role in the World

6 p.m. Reception, Lecture 6:30–8 p.m. Lenfell Hall, Hennessy Hall

Ambassador Liu Zhenmin, Permanent Mission of China to the United Nations

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19

United Nations

Nongovernmental Organization Briefing

Children's Rights: The Challenges of the Next 20 Years

10 a.m. United Nations Headquarters, New York City

Free to the FDU community. Passes to the United Nations must be requested at least one week in advance from the Office of Global Learning at 973-443-8876.

Study Abroad Open House

10 a.m.–2 p.m. Wroxtton Office, Bottom Floor, Hennessy Hall

If you are interested in studying abroad, stop by anytime between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. to find out more about your options.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Fulbright Information Session

10:30–11:30 a.m. Sullivan Lounge, Hennessy Hall

Learn more about this exciting opportunity at the information session presented by the Office of Global Education.

OPT 17-month Extension Information Session

3:30–5 p.m. Room S-11, Science Building

F-1 students learn more about this new opportunity. Find out who is eligible and how to apply.

For additional information about any event, contact the Office of International Student Services at x8672.

THE LEADER IN GLOBAL EDUCATION

FAIRLEIGH
DICKINSON
UNIVERSITY